Xuan,

I apologize for this. The phone number is associated to my former business partner, and I have been unable to get him to respond to me in regards to this matter. I am desperately needing to register for the Apple Deployment Program so that I may keep a commitment to my client. I have tried to change the phone number for the DUNS account, but it requires me to validate my email address, which I do not have access to. I have tried to reach out to my former business partner since August of 2019 so that I can have access to the email server and change the phone number associated to the DUNS account for ZroBlack,LLC, but I have not had any success.

I am 100% owner of ZroBlack,LLC and I can provide any documents to show this. Please advise me on how I can register for the Apple Deployment Program given the situation I am in.

Respectfully,
Jonathan Villarreal
